From Palgrave Macmillan : Luigi Einaudi: Selected Political Essays: Volume III: 3 before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Luigi Einaudi: Selected Political Essays: Volume III: 3:

Luigi Einaudi (1874-1961) was a leading liberal Italian economist, economic historian and political figure: Governor of the Bank of Italy, Minister for the Budget and President of the Italian Republic. He was a prolific writer in all fields and his writings testify to his outstanding contribution to economics during his long career.

About the Author Roberto Einaudi is an architect, writer, and founder of the Cornell University College of Architecture, Art and Planning in Rome, Italy. A grandson of Luigi Einaudi, he was President of the Foundation Luigi Einaudi of Rome in 2007-2011, and member of the board of directors of the three different foundations. Domenico da Empoli is Professor Emeritus of public finance at the University of Rome "Sapienza". He is editor of the Journal of public finance and public choice which deals with the economics and politics of public intervention. Corrado Malandrino is Professor of History of Political Doctrines and Jean Monnet Chair for the history of European integration at the University of Eastern Piedmont, where he was head of the faculty of Political Sciences from 2005 to 2011. Valerio Zanone was one of the founders of the Einaudi Centre of Turin (1964), a member of the board of the Einaudi Foundation of Turin (1991-2012), and President of the Einaudi foundation of Rome (1990-2007). He was General Secretary (1976-1985) and President (1991-1993) of the Italian Liberal Party. Between 1970 and 2008 he was three times Minister (Environment, Industry, Defense), Member of both Houses of Parliament, Regional councilor, Mayor of Turin. His publications include The Liberal Age, Rizzoli 1996.
