Geoffrey DeVerteuil : Resilience in the post-welfare inner city: Voluntary sector geographies in London, Los Angeles and Sydney before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Resilience in the post-welfare inner city: Voluntary sector geographies in London, Los Angeles and Sydney:

Moving beyond theoretical notions of 'resilience'; this is the first book to offer a conceptual and empirical approach to exploring and comparing the process of resilience across service 'hubs'; in three complex but different global inner-city regions: London, Los Angeles and Sydney.

'DeVerteuil demonstrates well the complex interplay of public, private, and voluntary sectors across the three city regions studied and offers real insight around the varied strategies that have enabled voluntary sector organizations' survival.'
